Procedure

An initial meeting is scheduled to:

- Discuss where the work will hang
- Determine appropriate size and format
- Discuss subject matter, colors, schedule
- Sign contract

A deposit of 10% of the total cost of the commission is due at contract signing. This is to cover supply costs for preliminary sketches, and is non-refundable.

After the Client has reviewed preliminary sketches and the general design of the work is agreed upon, 50% of the remaining balance is due, and the final painting is started. If requested, Client has the right to request images of the painting throughout different stages of its development. All sketches, preliminary drawings, and paintings remain the property of the artist.

The final painting is usually completed _____ after it is started. Upon completion, client will receive a final photo for initial approval. The painting will then be delivered/ shipped. Client has final right of acceptance or refusal. Final payment is made at this time including any travel and/or shipping expenses. If for any reason Client is not satisfied with commissioned work, Artist will refund all monies excluding the initial 10% deposit, once the painting has been successfully returned to the artist.

Artist offers framing services for additional fee.
